January 2019 5th - Savannah Jazz Band - and to get the New Year off to a spirited start, we have our traditional first gig with our traditional friends in their traditional mode - none other than the Savannah. It's always something of a relief after all the festivities, family visits and over indulgence to settle down again to normality with an evening of familiar and happy jazz coupled with some rollickin' Rhythm and Blues plus the humorous musings of the front line! 12th Tom Sharp's Jazz Orchestra - when they appeared last year we were expecting a six/seven piece group but eighteen young musicians turned up! And they were absolutely first class. So a Big Band of enthusiastic youngsters playing the sounds which you all love of the 50s and 60s. A truly engaging group - not to be missed. 19th - Frank Brooker's Happy Chappies - a warm welcome for our local hero, Frank, who leads a starline up including Greg Wadman on trumpet, Jim Wright on guitar/banjo, Phil Kampen on bass and all driven along by our favourite drummin' man, Rod MacNamara. Some Dixieland, some well known standards and some R & B. You just can't go wrong with this cheerful group. 26th - Big Easy Swing Band - another energetic group of young musicians from Leeds - some of whom are already well known to us - playing an extensive repertoire from the early days of New Orleans through to Jump Jive. The group has established a first class reputation throughout the North. We're delighted to welcome them back. Description:

In 1919, the British Establishment was stunned, and social conventions were challenged by the arrival, on these shores, of "Jazz" or "Jass", as referred to in some quarters. Politicians, Church Leaders and other dignitaries forecast that "this music of the devil" would cause the end of civilisation and the tour of Britain by The "Original Dixieland Jass Band" (ODJB) from New Orleans would be an event from which this country would never recover. However, King George V, acknowledging the strength in UK/USA relations following the American intervention at a critical point in World War 1, invited the band to a command performance at Buckingham Palace and dismissed the outrage that was inevitable. Following the success of this remarkable occasion, The ODJB tour, originally planned for four weeks, stretched to 14 months, with new dance crazes, outrageous costumes and a whole new era of "jazz behaviour" transforming British "upper" society 100 years later. Manchester Athenaeum Drama Society will be presenting a dramatic recreation of the events of 1919, including characterisations of King George V, Queen Mary, David Lloyd George and other leading figures of the day.. Internationally renowned Mart Rodger Manchester Jazz will be playing the music of the ODJB with the original instrumentation from the historic tour. Dates - Feb 1st and 2nd. 7.30pm Tickets, including cheese and wine, £10, Venue St Werburghs Church Hall, St Werburghs Road, Chorlton. Calendar: What's On

Description:

2nd - Chicago Teddy Bears Society Jazz Band - and to start off the month in style, none better than the "Teds" with a rip roaring session of traditional jazz to brighten up the dark winter days. The band originated in Manchester in the 1970's and the name was derived from a short lived TV sitcom series set in prohibition era Chicago. Always a lively, foot tapping session with the added bonus of John Hallam on reeds. 9th - Alan Barnes + John Hallam + Tom Kincaid Trio - you could describe this as one of our "hardy annual" presentations. It's certainly one of the highlight sessions of the year. Two superb saxophonists join together with the magical piano and rhythm sounds of the Tom Kincaid Trio to recreate the "standards" in their own inimitable way. A melodic musical evening par excellence. 16th - Wabash Jazzmen - ".....refreshing, vibrant hot five jazz" is an excellent description for this group which is driven along by the superb banjo playing of leader, Mark Challenor. Then add the talents of Mike Hayler on reeds, the memorable old alliance of Bill Smith and Mike Pembroke on cornet and trombone plus Richard Vernon on bass. Looking forward to an arousing, full spirited session. 23rd - Sorry - No Jazz. Beer Festival Weekend. see www.jazznorthwest.co.uk/bstn\_spa.htm for more details

Description:

The Pendle Jazzmen have continued to build up a regular audience for their monthly Thursday evening sessions at Ighten Mount Bowling Club, Romford St., Burnley: so much so that, by popular request, it has been decided to increase the event to twice a month. These will be on the first Thursday (as now) with an additional third Thursday. The downstairs function room - newly decorated - presents excellent facilities with a wide range of drinks available as well as pie and peas. The band's trademark of happy, foot-tapping dixieland jazz with a mixture of both informative comments and amusing jokes and stories will continue. From time to time the band is joined by instrumentalists who are invited to "sit in" for a couple of numbers and this adds variety to the evening. An admission charge of £2.00 and a popular raffle helps to cover travelling expenses for band members, some of whom come from as far away as South Manchester and Fleetwood. Two founder members of the band (Stuart Whiteley and Colin Mason) are still performing after over thirty-three years: they are joined most weeks by John Brunton, Mike Pearson, Dave Joyce and Mike Reddin. The doors open at 7p.m. and the music starts promptly at 8p.m. finishing at 10.30p.m. with a short break in between. New comers are always welcome as the band members constantly seek to keep jazz music alive and well in the town. Best wishes! Colin Mason

2nd - Chicago Teddy Bears Society Jazz Band - and to start off the month in style, none better than the "Teds" with a rip roaring session of traditional jazz to brighten up the dark winter days. The band originated in Manchester in the 1970's and the name was derived from a short lived TV sitcom series set in prohibition era Chicago. Always lively, foot tapping session with the added bonus of John Hallam on reeds. 9th - Alan Barnes + John Hallam + Tom Kincaid Trio - you could describe this as one of our "hardy annual" presentations. It's certainly one of the highlight sessions of the year. Two superb saxophonists join together with the magical piano and rhythm sounds of the Tom Kincaid Trio to recreate the "standards" in their own inimitable way. A melodic musical evening par excellence. 16th - Wabash Jazzmen - ".....refreshing, vibrant hot five jazz" is an excellent description for this group which is driven along by the superb banjo playing of leader, Mark Challenor. Then add the talents of Mike Hayler on reeds, the memorable old alliance of Bill Smith and Mike Pembroke on cornet and trombone plus Richard Vernon on bass. Looking forward to an arousing, full spirited session. 23rd - Sorry - No Jazz. Good fun, good friends, and good music. If you have tune requests please email me or ask on the night. We will do our best to play the tune you want. We may need to put it the 'book' for the month after. Please let me know if you no longer want to receive this newsletter. Simply click on the 'unsubscribe button' below. Parrjazz have returned to their original venue at Studio2 in Parr street, Liverpool on tuesday every week. Veteran Bruce Adams, well known to many, appears on September 4th while recent performers have included Alan Barnes and The Dixie Ticklers from London. Admission is free starting 8.30 pm. There is an excellent sound system plus the occasional vinyl LP jazz jam session. Their aim is to engage young musicians in all forms of jazz and hopefully keep it alive. PARRJAZZ is a night for the enjoyment of jazz music; we like to spread the umbrella of jazz far and wide! With a swinging resident house band and weekly featured international guests, Parrjazz is not one to miss for jazz lovers in the North West. The last set of each week is a jam, so come and join the fun!
